Please return your executed application personally to a Board Member, or mail it to Ralph Nava, Chairperson, New Mexico Military Museum Foundation, 1050 Old Pecos Trail, Santa Fe, NM 87505.

You will be invited to attend a board meeting to meet the Board and for them to meet you. At that time, you may ask questions of the Board Members so that you leave feeling comfortable with joining the Board, the Advisory Committee, or one of the other committees. You will be contacted shortly after your attendance at the Board Meeting as to your appointment.

The NMMMMF is in a transitional phase. Under the direction of General Kenneth Nava of the New Mexico National Guard, the Museum will be making substantial improvements to the museum. Thus, the Foundation will direct its activity toward the support and sustainability of the growth and development of the Museum and support the National Guard in this endeavor.

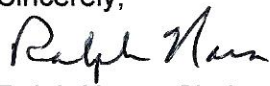

The Mission of the NMMMMF. Support the goals and mission of the New Mexico National Guard Museum to create a nationally recognized state-of-the-art facility with exhibits and education programs to inform the public of those military conflicts that occurred in with the New Mexico military servicepeople participated.

The Vision of the NMMMMF. By the year 2021, complete the reorganization of the Board, Committees, Advisory Councils, and paid staff to provide the necessary oversight and full time professional operation of the Museum by utilizing the renovated NMMM facility to generate sufficient facility revenue and charitable donations providing the Foundation with long-term sustainability.

The NMMMMF will support this endeavor with programs including but not limited to education, fundraising, volunteer recruitment, human resources, marketing, and public relations.

We look forward to the receipt of your application and your attendance at our Board Meeting so that all can meet you.

Sincerely,

Ralph Nava, Chairperson
